PASTOR'S NOTES - March 30, 2025

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

A Reflection

So long as a bee is outside the petals of the lotus and has not tasted its honey, it hovers around the flower buzzing. But when it is inside the flower it drinks the nectar silently.

So long as a man quarrels about doctrines and dogmas, he has not tasted the nectar of true faith; once he has tasted it he becomes still.

Peter France

Our Catechumen and Candidates for the Easter Sacraments
